I. SCOPE OF SERVICES

A. Purpose

The Susquehanna Workforce Network, Inc. (SWN) is soliciting proposals for website redesign and website maintenance services. The goal of the project is to:

1. Optimize SWN's website user experience of its targeted audiences with useful and current content.
2. Provide website maintenance, troubleshooting and perform site updates, changes & edits.

It is anticipated a contract will be awarded for a one (1) year period commencing with July 1, 2023 after approval and proper execution of the contract documents, with a renewal option for two additional years in one-year increments, exercisable at the sole discretion of the Local Workforce Board and based on achievement of performance and funding availability.

B. Services to be Performed

The awarded contractor will need to work collaboratively with SWN staff to complete the project. Project requirements are based on internal ideas and needs. Additional features or requirements can be added into the proposal to maximize the impact of website and content design.

The following components must be addressed in the proposal:

1. Website Design – Redesign of SWN's current website; www.swnetwork.org to optimize functionality and user experience of targeted audiences. Features should include social media integration, ability to use forms and online registration, search feature, search engine optimization, calendar of events and include a back-end customer relationship management platform.

Website design is to be compliant with Section 508 of the Rehabilitation Act and Section 188 of the Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act which requires website content to be accessible to people with disabilities. Other technical requirements include google analytics integration, search engine optimization best practices, mobile optimization.

2. Website maintenance – Perform regular website maintenance; troubleshooting and perform site updates, changes & edits. Update, edit and create various graphics when required for the website. Provide a mechanism and training to empower SWN staff to manage, maintain and update website content.

C. Bidder's Conference

A Proposer's Conference will be held virtually on Friday June 9, 2023, at 10:00am. Proposers wishing to attend are requested to contact the Administrative Office at 410-939-4240 or BMiller@SWNetwork.org no later than Wednesday, June 7, 2023 for the link. Questions are encouraged to be submitted in writing via email to bmiller@swnetwork.org no later than Thursday, June 8, 2023 at noon. Additional questions will not be answered about this RFP after the Bidder's Conference.

Attendance is not mandatory and anyone unable to attend may request a copy of the minutes and any materials distributed by contacting Belinda Miller, either by telephone using a number above or by e-mail to bmiller@swnetwork.org.

D. General Conditions

1. The release of this RFP does not constitute an acceptance of any offer, nor does such release in any way obligate the SWN to execute a contract with any offeror. The SWN reserves the right to accept, reject or negotiate any or all offers received in response to this request, to negotiate with all qualified sources, or to cancel, reject, alter, modify or amend in part, or in its entirety, this RFP, if to do so is in the best interest of the SWN.
2. The SWN will not be liable for any costs associated with the preparation of proposals or negotiation of contract incurred by any offeror.
3. All proposal prices are irrevocable for ninety (90) days following the closing date for submission.
4. All proposals, in their entirety, will become the property of SWN upon submission. Proposals will be exempt from disclosure until the evaluation and selection process has been completed. If a proposal contains any information that the offeror considers proprietary and does not want disclosed to the public or used for any purpose other than evaluation of the offer, all such information must be indicated with the following statement:

"The information contained on pages ____, ____, and _____ shall not be duplicated, used in whole or part for any purpose other than to evaluate the proposal, provided that if a contract is awarded to this office as a result of or in connection with the submission of such information, the SWN has the right to duplicate, use or disclose this information to the extent provided in the contract. This restriction does not limit the agency's right to use information contained therein if obtained from another source."
5. In submitting a proposal, the proposer certifies as to its legally constituted organization, and that in connection with this proposal:
 - The prices in the proposal have been arrived at independently without consultation, communication or agreement, for the purpose of restricting competition, as to any n 2 relating to such prices with any other offeror or with any competition; and,
 - Unless otherwise required by law, the prices which have been quoted in the proposal have not been knowingly disclosed by the proposer, and will not knowingly be disclosed by the proposer, prior to award directly or indirectly to any other proposer or to any competition; and,
 - No attempt has been made by the proposer to induce any other person or firm to submit or not to submit a proposal for the purpose of restricting competition.

6. Person(s) signing the proposal certifies that the person(s) in the offeror's organization who are legally responsible within that organization for the decision as to the price being offered in the proposal have not participated, and will not participate, in any actions contrary to the above.
7. SWN reserves the right to negotiate the final terms of all contracts with successful proposers. Items that may be negotiated include, but are not limited to, type and scope of services and activities, prices, and production schedules. Proposers will be required to submit all revisions to their proposal that may result from negotiations prior to any agreement to contract. SWN also reserves the right to end contract negotiations if acceptable progress, as determined by the SWN, is not being made within a reasonable time frame.

Likewise, SWN also reserves the right to accept any proposal as submitted for contract award, without substantive negotiation of offered terms, services or prices. Therefore, proposers are advised to propose their most favorable terms initially.

8. If only one responsive proposal is received for activities described in this RFP, the SWN has the option to re-open the procurement, or to initiate a sole source procurement process. Additionally, if no acceptable and responsive proposals are received, SWN has the option to re-open the procurement or initiate a sole source procurement process.
9. The proposer will be required to assume full responsibility for all specified services, and may subcontract only with the express written approval of the SWN.
10. Any information obtained concerning recipients of services through the SWN shall be treated as confidential in accordance with relevant provisions of State and Federal law.
11. Funding for contracts awarded as a result of this process shall be contingent on continued funding of the SWN through established sources. In the event that such funding becomes unavailable for any reason, the contract would terminate immediately and all payment obligations hereunder would cease forthwith; provided, however, that the Contractor would be paid for any services rendered prior to the date of such termination. The SWN retains the right to terminate or reduce a contract in whole or in part if funds are not available.

II. GENERAL INFORMATION

A. Organizational Background

The Susquehanna Workforce Network (SWN) is a not-for-profit, 501(c)(3) corporation, designated as the Workforce Board for the Susquehanna Region (Cecil and Harford Counties, Maryland), and the administrative entity for programs funded under Title I of the Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act (WIOA). The SWN is governed by a 31-member board comprised of representatives from education, community organizations, labor, economic development, the employment service, and a majority membership of business executives from throughout the region.

The SWN has been providing employment and training services to the business community and citizens of Cecil and Harford Counties since 1983. Under the Job Training Partnership Act, the organization was known as the Susquehanna Region Private Industry Council. With the enactment of WIA, the organization's name was changed to the Susquehanna Workforce Network on July 1, 2000, to more accurately reflect the change of focus to a streamlined, consolidated workforce development system.

B. Description of Activities

SWN's Board of Directors, the Susquehanna Workforce Area's Workforce Board, is focused on executing workforce strategies that contribute to the economic competitiveness of the region by creating solutions to address the region's pressing workforce and economic development challenges. This is accomplished through strategic public/private partnerships (P3) with business, industry and other governmental agencies, economic development and education that focuses on measureable outcomes that support local and regional economic development priorities.

SWN has a 40 year history of collaborative and regional efforts addressing business and industry needs. Through a variety of Federal, State, Local and Private resources, SWN manages and administers programs that help businesses grow and provides employment opportunity for area residents including youth, adults, dislocated worker and various disenfranchised populations. SWN Business Services operations assist the business community attract, retain and develop their workforce. The Susquehanna Workforce Centers assist residents in achieving their career and employment goals. SWN's Youth Services connect the emerging workforce to entry level employment opportunities and funds services to specialized populations.
